Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to the preliminary amendment of January 10, 2002.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the stroke journals uniformly distributed around the rotational axis of the crankshaft must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Art Unit: 3746

Claim 7 states that "the stroke journals are uniformly distributed around the rotational axis of the crankshaft". The disclosure does not describe or show the stroke journals. It is unclear what element the applicant is referring to. The examiner believes the applicant is referring to the bearing journal between the crankshaft and the connecting rod for the piston. This however would not agree with the claim language because the multiple pumps are not connected to the same crankshaft as required by the claim language.

Claim Objections

Claims 1, 4, and 7 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 1 line 3 "the delivery side" should be "a delivery side", in claim 4 each of the phrases "the power divider" should be "a power divider", and in claim 7 line 2 "the stroke journals" should be "a stroke journals". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Buse (USPN 4,050,862).

Buse discloses a pump system having a single drive connected to the crankshaft (10). There are multiple pumps (12,14,16) connected at their discharge sides to pressure line (22). One of the pumps (14) is on a different horizontal plane than the other pumps.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Buse.

Buse discloses the invention substantially as claimed but does not disclose the pump being accommodated in a casing whose dimensions correspond to a standard container. The examiner gives official notice that pumps in containers are well known. At the time of the invention it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to place the pump in a protective casing dimensioned to fit in a standard container so that it can be safely transported.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Harrison discloses two pumps mounted on a clock at different horizontal heights. Snow et al and Yoshimura disclose multi-piston pumps having a piston timing to smooth out the fluid delivery.
